Monroe College Online Learning Course System Requirements

ONLINE COURSE / E-MAIL REQUIREMENTS

- Students are required to have access to a reliable computer to access their online courses and college email, over the Internet, at home or at work with an ISP (Internet Service Provider) such as MSN, AOL, Roadrunner, Optimum, etc.
- Students are required to log into ANGEL, their online classroom, for lessons, course emails, online chats, etc.
- Students are required to log into and maintain their Monroe College email account, by deleting files when necessary, to ensure they can access college announcements.

SOFTWARE REQUIREMENTS

- Students who register in online courses need Microsoft Office (which includes Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint, etc.) to complete their assignments and to view their professor's weekly lecture notes and other learning materials. Students will also download additional applications for multimedia and PDF files. In addition, students who are registered for CP125-44: Electronic Spreadsheet Applications need Microsoft Office 2007.
- A copy of the Microsoft Office CD may be purchased in the Bursar's Office. You may contact them at 718.933.6700, ext. 8239 for further information.

COMPUTER AND SYSTEM REQUIREMENTS

- ANGEL is designed to support the widest variety of operating systems and browsers. While ANGEL generally functions well in many browsers, the following are formally supported and tested:
 - With PCs running Windows OS: Internet Explorer, Firefox, and Mozilla
 - With Macs running OS X: Firefox and Mozilla; Safari is not compatible.
 - Windows 2000 or higher, 450 MHz Pentium Processor, 200 MB free on your hard disk, and 64 MB RAM or greater
