English Language Learning Institute at MONROE COLLEGE

What is ELLI?

ELLI is the Monroe College English Language Learning Institute. It provides students whose primary language is not English with the reading, writing and verbal skill necessary for success in United States colleges and universities. Students will become fluent in English through language instruction, cultural immersion, intensive lab experiences, and courses in U.S. culture and the arts through drama, music, film, dance, and graphic arts.

ELLI Academic Calendar

Three 12-week sessions are available each year. Students may start in fall, winter or spring. During each session, students will participate in 24 hours of classroom instruction each week as well as field trips and other activities.

Three Semester Calendar:

Fall Semester: Early September – Late December

Winter Semester: Early January – Mid April Spring Semester: Early May – Early August

What will I study?

ELLI offers two levels of instruction. Each student's level of English proficiency will determine the required level of instruction. Level I requires enrollment in two sessions while Level II requires enrollment in one session. The innovative and intensive English Language Learning Institute combines fundamental and core elements of language acquisition with an engaging, creative social and extra-curricular experience.

Where will I live?

Monroe College offers apartment and dormitory living at the Monroe College New Rochelle campus within walking distance of classes, shopping, financial institutions and public transportation. New York City is a 30-minute train ride from the New Rochelle campus. ELLI students enjoy many activities available to Monroe College students including athletics, clubs, and trips.

What should I know about Monroe College?

Monroe College is a private, coeducational institution in New York offering undergraduate and graduate programs. Founded in 1933, the College offers career oriented undergraduate and graduate programs to over 7,000 students on two campuses in the New York Metropolitan Area. The main campus is located within New York City in the lively Fordham Road shopping district. The branch campus, which is known for its international flavor, is located just north of the city in the heart of beautiful downtown New Rochelle and is home to Monroe College's dormitories. The location of the college affords access to world class museums, cultural and historical sites as well as the diverse culture existing in New York City.

Monroe is accredited by the Middle states Commission on Higher Education, one of the six regional accrediting agencies recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education.
